A modern, minimalist living and dining room. The living room features a large, light-colored leather sofa with several patterned and solid-colored cushions. Behind the sofa is a long, low-profile media console with a large black television screen and open shelving displaying decorative objects like vases and a small orange speaker. A small, round, light-colored side table is next to the sofa. The dining area has a rectangular table with a dark, reflective top, surrounded by modern, light-colored chairs. The table is set with plates, glasses, and a centerpiece of a white vase with dried branches. A large, multi-bulb pendant light hangs over the dining table. Large windows with sheer white curtains and dark grey drapes are in the background, letting in natural light. The ceiling has recessed lighting and a long, thin light fixture.
